Rep. Slaughter Responds

to State of the Union Address

Addresses Administration's Failed Presidency

Washington, DC – Rep. Louise M. Slaughter (D-NY-28), Chairwoman of the House Rules Committee, today reacted to President Bush's State of Union address:

"It is obvious that President Bush is committed to continue spending billions of dollars every month on a war with no end in sight and ignoring priorities at home," said Rep. Slaughter.

"In spite of the great challenges our country faces, President Bush offered few new ideas to solving many of our nation's most pressing problems."

"We've all heard this same speech before, yet another State of the Union offering nothing but more failed policies and unfulfilled promises," Slaughter continued.

"From domestic policy to foreign policy, it is quite clear that this is a failed presidency."
